Dear Attendees to the June 12th Gordon Commission Colloquium at UCLA:

Thank you for attending this week’s special Gordon Commission Colloquium, To Assess, To Teach, To Learn: A Vision for the Future of Assessment. Below are a few final logistics:

Start time is 12:30 p.m. sharp. Given Los Angeles traffic and UCLA parking, PLEASE plan to arrive as close to 12 noon as possible. Light lunch is provided.

Parking permits for non-UCLA Staff are available at the UCLA Parking Kiosk on Westwood Blvd. See enclosed maps and freeway directions below. Please let the attendant know that you are here for the Gordon Commission Colloquium. If there are any problems with parking, please give them the confirmation number: 407917. Parking is in Parking Structure DD.

Parking for UCLA Staff: The Gordon Commission permits are for NON-UCLA staff only. UCLA Staff MUST use their own permits and are encouraged to either walk to the venue or exchange your existing permit and park in Lot 8. Structure DD has limited space for this event reserved for non-UCLA attendees only.

Should you have any questions, please contact Candice at carpio@cse.ucla.edu. Again, our sincere thanks for your participation in this exciting event.
