This booklet contains the following: the performance assignment task, standards assessed by the performance assignment, guidelines for administering the performance assignment, and a rubric.

The Assignment

This is the Grade Seven performance assignment task that your students will complete:

A theme is an idea or message expressed in a work of literature.

From the literary works you have read in class this year, select one that contains a clear theme. In a well-organized essay, describe this theme. Carefully choose a few events and explain how they reveal the theme.

Use examples and details from the text to support your descriptions.

This prompt can also be found, enlarged for copying purposes, on page 6 of this booklet.

Guidelines for Administering the Performance Assignment

Time Frame

You will receive directions from your school's Standards-Based Assessment Coordinator on the range of dates during the second semester when you may administer the performance assignment. This performance assignment should take approximately 2-3 hours over a one-week period.

Teacher Role

Introducing the Assignment

Prior to beginning the performance assignment, you should implement the following steps using teaching techniques you have found to be effective for your students:

- Explain the assignment (task requirements and duration).
- Distribute or display the prompt (overhead transparency, blackboard, or as a handout).
- Read the prompt aloud and explain it to your students. You can rephrase the prompt to make sure your students understand it.
- Remind your students that they should not write a summary of the entire plot. Instead, they should search for the best examples of events that illustrate the theme.
- Distribute or display the rubric.
- Read the rubric aloud and explain it to your students.
- Provide your students with a full or partial list of the literary works (novels, plays, and short stories) they have studied during the school year. You should not require all students to write on the same work of literature.
- Assist your students in selecting a literary work that develops a theme.
- This is an open-book assignment. Make sure your students have access to either the work of literature they have selected, or their notes on that work of literature.
- If necessary, allow your students to review their notes, which should focus on how the author reveals the theme through events in the literary work.
- Have your students engage in prewriting activities such as brainstorming, clustering, and outlining.

Administering the Assignment	During the 2-3 hours of the performance assignment, your students should complete the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Step A: Write a rough draft.</li> <li>• Step B: Revise and edit the draft.</li> <li>• Step C: Write a final copy of the composition.</li> </ul> The following guidelines should be observed during the administration of the performance assignment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students should do their own writing, revising, and editing for this assignment.</li> <li>• All writing directly related to the performance assignment must take place in the classroom. Students should not take home drafts to work on outside of the classroom.</li> <li>• You may not rewrite sentences or paragraphs, or provide editorial corrections for individual students. In addition, you may not directly indicate to students any specific changes that should be made on their papers.</li> <li>• You should provide additional feedback and/or accommodations for students with disabilities, as determined by their IEPs.</li> </ul>
Task Requirements	Each student must submit all prewriting materials (for example, graphic organizers and outlines), rough draft, and final copy. Only the final copy however, will be scored using the rubric in this booklet.
Scoring	This performance assignment will be scored using the rubric found on page 7 of this booklet. Papers from students with disabilities will be scored using the same rubric. All scores will be reported to LAUSD. For your own purposes, you may also score student papers on other qualities not emphasized in the performance assignment rubric. These additional scores can be counted in your classroom grades.
Further Information	LAUSD will provide detailed information on the role of the performance assignments in the promotion policy plan, how and when the performance assignments will be scheduled, and the overall scoring plan. LAUSD will also provide information on accommodating students with disabilities.
